Out of the station and into the light.
Look-Alike City's a magical sight!
And the look-alikes keep getting better and better.
I see a building that looks like a SWEATER.

And now for an extra-special treat:
The Look-Alike Circus, front-row seat!
The clown is so funny, and his outfit's so quaint
With those pants that look like TUBES OF PAINT.

We'll start our tour with the park and the zoo.
Let's search for look-alikes while strolling through.
Here's one that isn't often seen—
A sandbox that looks like a TAMBOURINE.
